The best me had for this purpose, it was suggested, would be to limit the number of girns on the farm and require a list to be recurded by the persons estilled to carry guns. It is probable that the House of Common will accept this amendment.

The Sonth Carolina Census.

New York, 20.—Heraid's Washington. A short time ago President Haye was convinced that it would be necessary to have the census of South Carolina taken over again. Fromtent federal method that just before his departure for Ohio he discussed the subject with General Walker, superintendent of the census, who assured him that if the sund property of the demand for re-enumeration. After Walker's visit to the executive massion, a republican exmember of Congress from South Carolina, who has the confidence of the remainder to Washington, he would be census bureau is a branch, would have returned to Washington, he would be able to judge correctly of the demand for re-enumeration. After Walker's visit of the executive massion, a republican exmember of Congress from South Carolina, who has the confidence of the President's statement, and the saily here founds that the did not believe there was the slightest foundation now for the alleged frauds and, taking the vote for President's attement, and it is said began to resize that there were too many corroborative facts sustaining the accuracy of the consus returns to be dispelled at this late day.

POLITICAL POINTS

Ben Butler Wants No Office

Democrats Disgusted With

Maine.

Readidg, Pa, 28.—Returns received up to midnight make it apparent that State Senator Ermentrout will be the democratic nomines for Congress to succeed Heister Clymer.

Boston, 28.—In a speech at Fanuell Hall, to-night General Butler declared that he is not and shall not be a candidate for any office, elective or appointive at this election, or under the incoming administration.

New York, 30.—Heruld's Washington: There are indications that democratic have practically abandened the contest in Maine, and this state of things is the northern part of the city, fragments shooting off in different directions.

at this election, or under the incoming administration.

New York, 30—Herald's Weshington: There are indicatens that democrate have practically absulened the contest in Maine, and this state of things is attested by the withdrawal of men and money from the canvass there, for more effective use in Indiana. Democratic speakers returning from Maine say without qualification that fution movement was a failure and they have no hope of success. The contest will be continued simply by local speakers.

Chirage, 30.—Journal's Washington: It is stated here as a fact that English has told the national committee that he will not sak the committee to send a dollar to his state. He has indicated that he will take care of Indiana, with the understanding that he is not to be called on, to contribute to other etales.

Afchanistan.

Afghanistan.

London, 30.—A dispatch from Choman, on Sunday says, General Roberts marched from Khelat-I-Ghilseai for Candahar on the 25th Inst. Hetook with him all the British garrison and handed over the fort to the Amer's officials. He expected to reach Candahar on Monday and stiack Ayoob Khan on Tuesday. He has sent a plan for combined action with General Phayer if the latter can reach Takht-I-Pul on Monday. This, however, is impossible in consequence of the searcity of food and forage, and the wholesale desertion of drivers. Takht-I-Pul is thirty-five miles south of Candahar.

Simila, 30.—The retirement of Gen. Stewart's force is practically completed without in jury to the troops and in perfect order.

without injury to the troops and in perfect order.

London, 32. - The garrisons of Khelati, Khilzxi, and Candahar will increase General R-berts force to 15,000 men. Of these I,000 will probably remain in the cisadel of Candahar, leaving 14 000 available for the attack on Ayoob Khan Quattah, 30. - News from Candahar to the 16th inst. When Ayoob Khan learned of General Roberts approach he abondoned the investment of Candahar and took position with his whole force on the Argandab river. General Phayre's advance has occupied Gatai. General Phayre himself will march for Candahar to-night. Troops are pushing forward with marvelous rapivity.

Chicage, 30. It is announced as a masure of retailation and self-protection that the Chicage, Barlington and Quiney Railrad Company will immediately commence the construction of a branch line from Peoris, Illinois, to Toledo, Ohiv. This enterprise is made nocessary by the aggressive policy pursued by the Wabash interest in the territory once controlled by the Burlington Company and roomies to result in vigorous compeliation. The new road will be located near the Wabash. An engineer corps is already in the field.
